

National Parks Interim Arrangement between Mi'kmaq of Nova Scotia and Parks Canada

VEHICLE IDENTIFIER INFORMATION SHEET

The National Parks interim Arrangement is an agreement between Parks Canada and the Assembly of Nova Scotia Mi'kmaw Chiefs. This agreement was developed through the Made-in-Nova Scotia Process between Canada, Nova Scotia and the Mi'kmaq of Nova Scotia.

1. What is the vehicle identifier for?

The vehicle identifier allows entry without charge into any of the National Parks or National Historic Sites in Nova Scotia. It covers the vehicle, driver and up to five other people in the vehicle. It tells Parks Canada staff that the vehicle is permitted to be in the park. Your vehicle may be ticketed or towed if Parks Canada cannot clearly see the vehicle identifier.

2. Where can I use the vehicle identifier?

You can use the vehicle identifier to enter without charge at any National Park and National Historic Site managed by Parks Canada in Nova Scotia.

3. How would I use the vehicle identifier at the Fortress of Louisburg?

You can enter the Fortress of Louisburg without charge by showing your Status Card at the entrance to the site.

4. What does the vehicle identifier allow me to do?

The vehicle identifier allows you to enter the three parks and sites without charge. You can also use trails and services that are normally provided in each Park/Historic Site. You still must get fishing and camping permits and pay camping fees.

5. What happens if I lose my vehicle identifier?

Your band office has record of the vehicle identifiers they have issued. You can get a new vehicle identifier from your band office once Kwilmu'kw Maw-klusuaqn (KMK) has verified your information.

6. Can I sell the vehicle identifier or give it to another person?

No. You cannot sell your vehicle identifier or give it to someone else.

7. Where can I find more information?

You can get more information about Parks Canada programs by visiting www.pc.gc.ca and about Kwilmu'kw Maw-klusuaqn by visiting www.mikmaqrights.com

8. Who does the National Parks Interim Arrangement apply to?

The Interim Arrangement applies to the Mi'kmaq of Nova Scotia as represented by the Assembly of Nova Scotia Mi'kmaw Chiefs.
